Our sites use cookies to distinguish you from other users of our sites. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you use our sites and also allows us to improve our sites. By continuing to use our sites, you are agreeing to our use of cookies to enable us to fulfil our contractual obligations.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your device if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your device's hard drive.

We use functionality cookies to maintain a user's login state, which are necessary for the operation of the site.

We use tracking cookies to recognise you when you return to our sites, if you have selected the “remember me” option. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

You may refuse to accept these cookies by activating the setting on your browser which allows you to refuse the setting of cookies. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our site. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you log on to our sites.
